Judge's Comments:

The Show was held together with The Chicago Pet Expo at the Arlington Heights Racetrack. Dogs and cats of every type and shape were presented. The show was held in a corner of the upper hall and there was a steady stream of spectators. Entries were a little bit low, but for the show being so early it was understandable. Condition on all the birds needed improvement. But the OF Green Opaline that won was superb and therefore stood out.

Judge's Comments:

The Bird Show was held with The Pet Expo at Arlington Park it was the 2nd day of a two day show. We had a low entry because the exhibitors had to get home, and the Expo presented very strict rules. The nine birds I had were all good birds and all placed in the bench the day before. Thanks to the exhibitors that stayed and to The Greater Chicago Bird Club for having me to judge.

Thanks,

Joe DeLuca
